MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director (Administration)

SUBJECT: Weekly Report - Office of General Counsel
Period of September 8 - 14, 1951

3. Mr. Parker of the Bureau of the Budget, after discussion with the appropriate officials of the Bureau, has approved CIA's request to submit to the Post Office and Civil Service Committees of the House and Senate our request for exemption from the proposed legislation creating a "little Wagner Act" for Federal employees. Mr. Winslow of the Civil Service Commission has assured Mr. Pforzheimer that the Commission will write an exemption for CIA into their proposed substitute legislation if it is submitted and will also exempt us from an executive order on this subject if it is determined that one should be issued.

4. Reviewed laws and Comptroller's decisions on retired reserve officers employed in civilian capacity to ascertain whether retired pay could be drawn simultaneously. A 1948 Comptroller's decision withheld the retired pay but did not specifically consider a 1947 law (Section 371 b) which might be construed to authorize payment. Asked [redacted] to discuss with [redacted] in the Comptroller's office.

5. Discussed with [redacted] the income tax problem presented by [redacted] of Training as to whether income tax withholding should be made for potential instructors now undergoing training [redacted] I.T. 4056 appears to cover the situation and indicates that so long as they merely study and perform no services the stipend is not includable in gross income. By inference, however, when they start to instruct it will then become taxable compensation. Asked [redacted] to follow up with [redacted]

6. Asked [redacted] about progress on [redacted] Informed that Mr. Angleton had accepted the administrative arguments [redacted] to the point that he would raise them with the individual concerned and see if they were acceptable.

7. Briefed General Davison on problems relating to the Employees' Compensation Act and our relations with the BEC. Indicated the importance we attach to these problems and requested that he review the manner in which they are handled by Personnel to determine if the personnel in his office were doing everything necessary to assure security and the best benefits for Agency employees.
